JOB DESCRIPTION

Development & Communications Manager

April 2018

Position Description:

The Development & Communications Manager is a new role at Motus Theater. The Development & Communications Manager will be responsible for two areas:

1) Raising funds and implementing development processes to support the organization, as well as an exciting new UndocuAmerica performance and media project that is expected to launch in September 2018. Motus Theater's annual budget is currently $176,000, with an anticipated increase of $125,000 to support the new UndocuAmerica project.

And 2) Developing and implementing a communication strategy that advertises and educates a wide range of audiences about Motus Theater and, particularly, the UndocuAmerica project.

The position works in collaboration with Motus Theater's Producing Director, Artistic Director, and the board of directors, and is supervised and evaluated by the Producing Director.

1-year full-time (40hrs/week). However, if an outstanding candidate requires a part-time position, the Producing Director may negotiate a reduced scope of responsibilities. Compensation is commensurate with experience. Position's longevity will be revised at the end of contract period.

Specific Responsibilities:

Fund Development – shape, manage and drive the implementation of a successful fundraising strategy to support organizational and project development needs, including:

- Develop and manage annual fundraising plan for Motus Theater, including our new UndocuAmerica project.
- Secure financial support from individuals, foundations, and corporations, with special focus on cultivating a large base of annual individual donors.
- Manage, oversee or execute data entry and gift processing.
- Develop and maintain ongoing relationships with major donors.
- Oversee organization of annual fundraiser and support board with fundraising events, such as house parties and Motus Meals.
- Develop calendars, plans, and marketing material for fundraising events and appeals.
- Develop and track proposals and reports for all foundation and corporate fundraising.
- Support organization with creating annual expense and revenue budget.

Communications - shape, manage and drive the implementation of an effective outreach, press and communication campaign to educate and cultivate community support, including:

- Develop and implement cost-effective marketing and outreach strategies to communicate with a wide range of constituencies through printed and electronic media.
- Create, write, edit and produce press releases, and printed materials including annual report (with a focus on communication relevant to our UndocuAmerica project).
- Communicate and collaborate with a range of people and organizations, including immigrant rights leaders, artists, business leaders and journalists to encourage their participation in and promotion of Motus Theater's programs in the community.
- Use data that reports on the impact of current immigration policy on undocumented and documented peoples to encourage audience members to get more involved in Motus Theater performances.
- Maintain organization's website, online publications, and social media.

Qualifications:

- BA (required) or MA (a plus) in relevant field.
- Five-plus years of experience in development and/or communications
- Demonstrate excellence in organizational, managerial, and communication skills.
- Excellent written and verbal communications skills . Excellent public speech skills.
