

MOTUS THEATER

Moving Stories that Move Us Forward

The creator's of Do You Know Who I Am? present:

SALSA On Stage

Motus Theater & Programa Compañeras are collaborating on a new project called SALSA that tells the stories of immigrant women from Latin America. Programa Compañeras will be creating a book for the project and Motus Theater will be working on an autobiographical performance of stories. The performance will be delivered in Spanish on Oct 10th as part of La Cumbre and in English at The Dairy Center for the Arts in December (Participants don't need to be bilingual to participate)

Are you interested in learning how to perform your story to help people understand the obstacles faced by immigrants and the assets we bring as mothers and daughters to this community?

First informational gathering: Sunday, April 12th at 2:30pm.

For location details or more information on how to participate in this exciting project as a performer, translator, sponsor, volunteer or collaborator contact:

Kirsten Wilson at 303-440-3682 or email: motus.arrow@gmail.com

What is Programa Compañeras? It is a program of El Centro Amistad whose mission is to: promote the well-being of women; enhance the quality of life while expanding access to educational and cultural programs; create a network of support; develop political consciousness; and collectively mobilize social justice actions. They organize La Cumbre every year in Boulder, Colorado.

What is Motus Theater? The mission of Motus Theater is to create original theater to facilitate dialogue on critical issues of our time. Motus aims to use the power of art to build empathetic alliances across diverse segments of our community. They are the creators of Do You Know Who I Am? performance that has been touring the state to help people understand the obstacles faced by undocumented immigrants.
